

Savage Entertainment Fighting and Title Holding Agreement

Savage Entertainment will not play politics.

People fighting for the title agree to the following stipulations.

The winner of the title will agree to defend the title six times per year, date starting when said fighter wins title, opponent will be picked by promoter. It is up to the title holder to train safely, if the title holder injures himself during training and cannot fight. The title will be forfeited. If the title holder refuses the fight the title belt will be returned to Savage Entertainment, if the title belt is not returned the fighter who has the title belt will be billed for it and payment must be received no later than ten days from Savage Entertainments request. The dates of said title defense will be picked by Savage Entertainment. The only exemption is if said title holder injures himself during title defense and a Savage Entertainment medical personnel says it is unsafe for title holder to fight.

Savage Entertainment was formed for real fighters not paper tigers who want to build their records by fighting girl scouts, title holders will not be protected, Savage Entertainment is looking for fighters willing to step up to the plate, get in the cage and fight. If you do not agree please put the pen down and go home.

Signed: _____

Dated: _____